

Theme: Cherish What We Have

Comic strip title: Crazy Crab and the Fox

Crazy Crab lives in a river. He always goes out with his 'house', the shell, to find food.

Every day, Crazy Crab catches some small fish, insects and bugs to eat.

However, Crazy Crab thinks that shell is very heavy. He wants to take it off.

After taking off the shell, he feels free. He walks far away from the river.

Finally, Crazy Crab is too far away from the river. He meets a hungry fox. He can't wear his shell again. So, he has no shells to protect him. He should be grateful for his useful shell.
