

Theme: Cherish What We Have

Comic strip title: Fantastic Hiking

Last Saturday, my family and I went hiking to Wong Nai Tun Reservoir. It was a sunny day.

First, we went up the hill cheerfully. We felt delighted.

Thirty minutes later, my sister and I felt tired. So we wanted to give up. Mom did not agree.

Then, Mom sent our photos to Grandpa and Grandma. They replied "We wish we could go with you, but we're too old. We cannot walk too far or up the hill."

Two hours later, we arrived at the reservoir. I could see a lot of interesting things. The scenery was really spectacular. I told my sister "Cherish what we have-we can walk up the hill."