

Theme 2: Cherish What We Have

A friend in need is a friend indeed

A Hungry Zebra

One day, Zebra Sam broke his legs in a football match. He could not move freely. He couldn't buy food from supermarkets. He decided to seek for help from his friends. He felt very hungry.

Zebra Sam began to make phone calls to his friends. All his friends refused to help him. Lion Tom told Sam that he was very busy. Horse John told Sam that he was sick. Mouse Jack replied to Sam that he had lunch with his friends.

Suddenly, somebody knocked at Sam's door. After he opened the door, he saw Giraffe Mary standing outside. She took out a plate of grass and said, "Good afternoon, Sam!"

Sam smiled and replied, "A friend in need is a friend indeed."
