

Theme 2: Cherish What We Have

A friend in need is a friend indeed

The rich man with his money

Once upon a time, there was a rich man called John. He was a selfish man because he didn't lend his money to the people in need.

One day, John saw a poor man who is called Bob in the street. "Can you give me some money?" the poor man begged. "Go away!" yelled John. John pushed the poor man away!

A few days later, a burglar broke into John's house and stole all John's money! John became a poor man. He didn't have enough money to buy food so he was hungry. He begged for money in the street every day.

One week later, John saw the poor man again. But the poor man was not poor now because he found a job and he became very rich. "Can you give me some money?" begged John. "Yes!" answered Bob. "I'm sorry for being rude to you," said John.

John was not poor and hungry again. John and Bob became good friends.
